A monthly newsletter equipping Christians to uphold the authority of the Bible from the very first verse

So Obvious, Even a Child Gets It!

The more we train generations from the earliest age (even 2 years old), the more they'll distinguish truth from error.

Two-year old Elijah, "playing" Creation Museum.

I read an article recently in which an evolutionist bemoaned the fact that biblical creationists are able to come across as very convincing to children.

Now, I thought: if you go to Barnes & Noble or another bookstore, you can see a wide range of books on evolution/millions of years targeted for a young audience—designed to indoctrinate children in evolutionary ideas. Of course, public school science texts (and other resources in school libraries) also are geared to teach evolution/millions of years as fact, right from the youngest ages in the government-run education systems.

Even with such intense indoctrination, secularists complain that creationists are increasingly successful in countering the evolution/long ages message. They say there's an urgent need for evolutionists to communicate their message more effectively to children.

Let's face it. Secular evolutionists/atheists know that if you can indoctrinate at a young age, it paves the way to brainwashing children with a naturalistic (atheistic) worldview. That's why the secularists are moving more and more to protect their ideology through legislation and litigation. They don't even want students to hear the difficulties with evolution or understand the observational evidence that contradicts it (evidence which actually confirms the Bible's account of creation).

Sadly, secularists have indoctrinated billions of children in anti-God ideas, and are accelerating their efforts in order to gain an even stronger hold on the public education system.

Such people are quick to accuse Christians (especially those believing in biblical creation) of indoctrinating children at a young age. Well, after all, the Bible instructs parents to do so:

"Train up a child in the way he should go, And when he is old he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6).

Evolutionists/atheists thus work hard to kick Christianity out of the public school system (and other public places) and replace it with their own religion—the religion of naturalism (atheism). It’s a worldview that teaches that the universe and all life have arisen by natural processes—and that man is just an animal who has no ultimate meaning and purpose.

The New, Aggressive Atheists

Atheist Richard Dawkins actually states that Christians who teach their children Christianity are committing “child abuse.”* Also, the legal director for the group American Atheists, Ed Kagin—who protested against the opening of our Creation Museum last May and tries to stir up people against AiG whenever we want to do any additional construction such as putting in a new parking lot—was quoted as saying the following about creationism in general: “We might now be in the Dark Ages ... [There is a] need to oppose the terrorism of this ignorance, and the child abuse of teaching children that science is wrong and that faith and dogma trump truth.”**

Of course, Dawkins and Kagin are “God haters”—which is why they oppose creationists and want to impose their atheistic dogma on public school students (and society in general). In essence, they want schools to be churches of atheism.

Such atheists often get livid when they see the effectiveness of the Creation Museum’s communication techniques, especially as they realize that the museum (and AiG’s other outreaches) are reaching children with information Dawkins and Kagin don’t want them to know. These are children the atheists want to brainwash against the Christian message!

A Budding Museum Operator

God is doing a great work, and I get so excited when we receive testimonies like this one that involves a very young museum booster:

“The Creation Museum is not lost on the really young. My 2-year-old son Elijah visited the museum (along with the rest of the family). Months later, he decided that he should pretend he is going to the Creation Museum. He lined up his [toy] dinosaurs, handed out tickets to us, and told us all the [dinosaur] names.

“Our little boy (having not been to the Creation Museum in many months) described details of the museum—the brachiosaurus in the lobby that moves his head ‘like this’ (as our son demonstrated with his hand), and the planetarium where our ‘seats went back to look at the stars on the ceiling.’

“He loves creation, and especially all the kinds of dinosaurs God made.”

The more we train generations in the truth right from the earliest age (even at 2), the more they’ll easily distinguish truth from error. Yes, the truth that God created as the Bible states is so obvious, even a child gets it!

We need such a generation of children to combat false teachings of “the children” of Dawkins and Kagin.

So remember: your children are really never too young to learn something from the Creation Museum (see next page). 11

Come Adventure with Us!

Does the explorer in you get excited when you hear about great adventures for God and His Word? Would you like to hear about a real-life journey through the frozen past, where heroes were huddled against the aching cold of the Alaskan wilderness to “find the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, so that you may know that . . . the Lord is the God of Israel” (Isaiah 45:3)?

Come join us this month—March 21 & 27 at 1 p.m.—at the Creation Museum near Cincinnati to hear AiG’s real-life explorer Buddy Davis recount the true story of his quest for God’s treasures in Alaska. Locked in a remote, frozen wasteland where man has rarely trekked lie the remains of creatures so mysterious that science can scarcely believe the truth. But this team of scientists and researchers endured some incredible hardships to reach them.

Were they successful? Did they really find unfossilized dinosaur bones? What would the implications of such a find be? Join us to find out! Visit www.CreationMuseum.org. See you this month! <sup>13</sup>

Tens of thousands of families have already enjoyed their visit to the Creation Museum. Note the expanded hours below that will make the museum even more accessible.

Right: The museum’s main hall features high-tech animatronic dinosaurs.

Museum Hours Expanded

Beginning Friday, March 21, the Creation Museum will stay open until 9 p.m. Can’t make it on Friday evening? The museum is now open an hour early (at 9 a.m.) on Saturdays.

Spring Hours (until Memorial Day; then resuming Labor Day through Memorial Day 2009)

Monday – Thursday: 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Friday: 10:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. (3 extra hours!)

Saturday: 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. (1 extra hour!)

(Note: Starting September 3, 2008, museum closed on Wednesdays)

Summer Hours (Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day)

Mon. – Thursday: 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Friday: 10:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. (3 extra hours!)

Saturday: 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. (open early)

Sunday: Noon – 6:00 p.m. (starting May 25)

Visit www.CreationMuseum.org

Raving Fans

As guests continue to pour into the museum (over 320,000 in 9 months), here is what a few of them are saying about this high-tech evangelistic center:

- “A spectacular visit. A place believers can learn to support the Bible & unbelievers to question what they believe.”
- “I am a youth pastor. I can’t wait to bring my youth group to this remarkable museum. I left in awe of God.”

We have set up a special web page to help you make your plans to visit the museum (located near Cincinnati): www.CreationMuseum.org.

On DirecTV® ... Every Week!

Do you subscribe to DirecTV®, the satellite network?

If so, now you can tune in to faith-building AiG teaching on the “Answers Creation Hour” on the NRB channel (number 378) every Tuesday evening, 9:00–10:00 p.m. (EST).

This new outreach of AiG launched last month.

In response to viewer requests, the NRB (National Religious Broadcasters) approached AiG last fall about such a program. After back-and-forth discussions for several weeks, AiG’s VP of Media & Marketing, Dale Mason, presented this NRB opportunity to AiG’s communications committee, which strongly endorsed the idea. “Most ministries pay hundreds of thousands of dollars per year for timeslots like this,” observed Mason. “Due to NRB’s strong desire for AiG programming, in the end, we didn’t have to incur these kind of expenses.”

AiG is thrilled at the possibility to reach into as many as 16 million U.S. households (plus over 4 million Latin American and Brazilian homes) every week.

Pray for this new “channel” as it shares the truth of the Bible, beginning with Genesis! It is our hope that millions will view the creation-gospel message this year! <sup>13</sup>

Museum Wins Special Award

Last month, our :30 television commercial advertising the Creation Museum won the “Best Television Commercial of the Year” award from the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB). At the ceremony in Nashville, Tennessee this month, AiG and its advertising agency, Joseph David Advertising, received the award in recognition of a successful TV campaign conducted in 3 states.

prayerpoints

Please pray:

- that the international training seminar we’re holding next month at the Creation Museum—with representatives from five continents—will thoroughly equip Christian leaders to bring the creation/gospel message back to their spheres of influence.
- that many more young people will accompany their parents and grandparents to the Creation Museum and enjoy all its Bible-centered activities.

Family Conference Savings

There are just a few days left to save big on your Branson summer vacation!

Have you made your reservations yet for AiG's exciting "Defending Your Faith in a Secular America" family conference? If not, be sure to do so prior to the April 1st deadline in order to take advantage of our "early-bird" registration rates! Nearly 1,000 people have already registered.

Join us July 15–18 in family-friendly Branson, Missouri for four days of great Bible teaching from some of America's finest apologetics speakers—Ken Ham, Doug Phillips, Vodie Baucham, and Carl Kerby.

You'll also enjoy great music from our own Buddy Davis (who will also offer his very popular children's workshops throughout the week)—and there's plenty of free time in the schedule set aside to take in the local sights and sounds of this great vacation destination.

Make plans to join us this July, but register now to save big! Go to www.aigbranson08.com or call (877) 244-3370.

Host a Regional Conference

If you want to host an Answers conference in your area and wish to see dozens of Bible-believing churches participating and benefiting, then organize a pastors' breakfast a few weeks before the major event.

Just as with the Georgia breakfast to the right, it's the best way possible to promote the conference that follows. The pastors will become your key promotional means to get out the word.

A Towering Issue

Wonder how all the different people groups have arisen? Was there really a Tower of Babel as the Bible records?

Answers to these kinds of questions are found in our latest faith-building issue of Answers magazine, coming off the press right now. Your family will be equipped through reading several articles that uphold the authority of the Bible. Also, look for the special children's pull-out section.

Call today at (800) 779-3390. Four issues at $22 year. Last issue at this price!

Have You Remembered AiG in Your Estate Plan?

A bequest in your will or living trust is an easy and effective way to provide future financial support to the ministry of Answers in Genesis. Your special gift in this way will help ensure the continuation of our outreaches that evangelize the lost and uphold the authority of the Word of God.

Your revocable bequest may also result in an estate tax deduction. In addition to leaving cash or a percentage of your estate, bequests can also be funded with securities, real estate, or personal property.

The Lord has blessed and entrusted to your care/stewardship certain assets in this life. Please make sure that after you are gone, an inspiring and instructive legacy of biblical stewardship continues.

From the Couch to the Creation Museum

"Wake up and smell the best 'reality show,' America: the Creation Museum!"

"Our family and two others visited the museum. From the time we entered the grounds, we felt at home with a very accommodating staff. Every employee took the time to answer our questions and gave us more information which helped us out tremendously.

"The atmosphere and message were great.

"I believe the museum can be a part of a revival among youth in the church, and then it will spread.

"Our trip will spark many others to come from our area. We are already talking about a Lifetime Membership.

"You have been used by God to get us off the couch."

—M. O., Georgia

WHO ARE WE? AiG is the world's largest apologetics ministry. We seek to equip the church to uphold the authority and accuracy of the Bible from the very first verse, thereby enabling it to more effectively present the gospel in our increasingly secular, evolutionary society.

Evolution-thinking has been detrimental to medical science.

Evolution vs. Medicine

Did you know that many people—including most evolutionist scientists—still believe the old story that the appendix is some kind of useless left-over from our ape-like ancestry?

It's incredible that this myth continues to be spread. In fact, the 2008 Encyclopedia Britannica article on the appendix states: "The appendix does not serve any useful purpose as a digestive organ in humans, and it is believed to be gradually disappearing in the human species over evolutionary time."

In our research library, though, we have a medical textbook that presents the known functions of this organ. For example, the appendix has a role to play in our immune system.

Many evolutionists continue to cling to outdated and wrong information in their attempt to persuade you that evolution is true. They also claim that there are other so-called "useless" body parts that are left over from our evolutionary ancestors.

By the way, AiG's Dr. David Menton, who taught at the prestigious school of medicine at Washington University in St. Louis for more than 30 years, points out that there are examples of how evolution-thinking has actually been detrimental to medical science. <sup>1:1</sup>
